

Christopher Dilts assists people in connecting with their Angels to receive inspiration, healing, wisdom, love and joy. He has been facilitating Angel gatherings, seminars workshops and personal sessions in the Americas and Europe for over six years.

After completing five years of intensive study in spiritual and energetic healing, Christopher was ordained in the Church of Divine Unity. He has trained extensively with teachers from the Barbara Brennan School of Healing®, Energy Mastery School, and the Energy Healing Institute and is experienced in the meditation traditions of Buddhism, Vipassana, Christian mysticism and other meditation forms.

Christopher has been blessed with many opportunities to travel and learn from medicine men and women, Christian mystics, Buddhist monks, and spiritual healers from many of the world's spiritual traditions.

Christopher also has a broad range of management experience including starting three high-tech corporations and executive positions with software companies. He is currently president of the SeekersWay Foundation, a non-profit educational institution that fosters understanding of the world's major spiritual traditions. He has practiced yoga for 12 years and meditation since his teens.

Christopher lives on the central California coast, where he is an active member of the Sai Baba Center and loves running, hiking, and playing guitar and keyboards.

Your experience with Chris will have a clear, positive effect – it is sort of like a shot of spiritual adrenaline that never wears off.

Christopher’s gentle way of working with clients engenders trust. His high level intuitive abilities allow him to then focus on core issues which clients may not have been aware of. His connections with the spiritual realms, particularly the angelic beings, allow him to channel through the healing energy that is needed in the moment. Put all this together, and you have a teacher and healer extraordinaire.

William H. Leyva, M.D.

Have you ever heard an angel laugh? I have, in my sessions with Chris Dilts. A compassionate and devoted healer, Chris brings through the profound and life changing messages from the Angels, together with their incredible spirit of joy, humor, and love. I am extremely grateful.

The Jewel of Your Soul & The Seed of Your Heart

The Jewel of your soul is your personal inspiration – your purpose for being – expressed through your inner gifts and abilities. These Jewels are always present, linked to the full force of creation. The Angels can help deepen your clarity, conviction and passion for expressing your gifts and connect you with all the resources required to make your dreams come true.

Opening the Seed of your heart at the center of your being brings these Jewels into full brilliance. The resources, relationships and finances to help you fully express the dreams of your heart and soul become much more accessible. Every difficult experience, circumstance, relationship and every obstacle you encounter, contains a gift to empower and enable your creative expression.

The Angels bring you very personalized methods to more easily discover the purpose of the obstacles and blocks in your life – helping you open the gifts within them – gifts of greater clarity, wisdom, peace and increased creative ability. The Angels help you learn to recognize and accept divine help and assistance in all its forms.

The thing that stays with me even now, is the feeling of being enfolded in Angels’ Wings and being surrounded with unconditional love. When I’m going to sleep or I’m waking up in the middle of the night, I come back to that place and it is lovely. Thank you so much! Chris is such a gentle presence.

Through My Angel experience with Christopher, I am transformed. I went in with half a heart, if that. I gave my heart over to the possession of the angels for healing and it was as if I was at home for the first time. Now I feel as if I am operating as a full being.
